Hi Meggan – please see the response below to Clarification #3.

Based on your response to the Pricing Assumption #6 in clarification #2, there is some ambiguity when describing your methodology. Please clarify that ALL of the following (listed in your proposal) is included “IN SCOPE” in your proposal.

Yes. The response to clarification #2, Pricing Assumption #6 detailed the methodology related to development of the enterprise documentation. HealthTech confirms that enterprise documentation related to all items listed in the table provided is in scope of the project. Sorry for the confusion, all the tools listed in the table are part of the SI platform, ODS, and/or EDMS.

Thank you!

Liz
