E-mail: AHCCCSRules@azahcccs.gov

Web site: www.azahcccs.gov

5. An agency's justification and reason why a rule should be made, amended, repealed or renumbered, to include an explanation about the rulemaking:

Arizona Laws 2013, First Special Session, Chapter 10 (House Bill 2010) specified changes to the AHCCCS Program which require, among other items, rule-making to establish cost sharing provisions consistent with federal law. In this rulemaking, the Agency revised the current cost sharing rules to incorporate exemptions of certain populations from cost sharing requirements specified in final federal regulations which will become effective January 1, 2014. In addition, this rulemaking repeals cost sharing requirements which apply to AHCCCS Waiver populations which will no longer exist beginning January 1, 2014. To clarify cost sharing requirements generally, this rulemaking also includes revision of language, updates to various cross-references, and non substantive changes. In the future, the AHCCCS Administration intends to promulgate other cost sharing provisions in subsequent rulemakings

Section 36 of this Law provides a rulemaking exemption: For a period of one year from the effective date of the Act, the AHCCCS Administration is exempt from the Administrative Procedure Act's rulemaking requirements for rules regarding cost sharing.

6. A reference to any study relevant to the rule that the agency reviewed and proposes either to rely on or not to rely on in its evaluation of or justification for the rule, where the public may obtain or review each study, all data underlying each study, and any analysis of each study and other supporting material:

A study was not referenced or relied upon when revising the regulations.

7. A showing of good cause why the rulemaking is necessary to promote a statewide interest if the rulemaking will diminish a previous grant of authority of a political subdivision of this state:

Not applicable.

8. The preliminary summary of the economic, small business, and consumer impact:

The Administration will be expending an additional $1.1M per month in capitation payment for the childless adults listed under subsection (F) and the Breast and Cervical Cancer population for the copayment not collected.

9. The agency's contact person who can answer questions about the economic, small business and consumer impact statement:
