Informational Briefing on the AHCCCS Benefits Re-design Proposal

In response to significant fiscal challenges facing the State and substantial recent growth in the Medicaid population, the Arizona Health Care Cost Containment System (AHCCCS) is proposing to modify the acute care adult benefit package. The preliminary recommendations were developed with both internal and external resources to address the state's budget crisis.

The Agency is holding an informational briefing to present its preliminary recommendations with some time for public comment. Written comments can also be submitted to Theresa.gonzales@azahcccs.gov and will be accepted until June 26, 2009.

Below is information on the time and location for the briefing.

AHCCCS Administration
701 E. Jefferson, Gold Room
Phoenix, Arizona
June 15, 2009
3:00 - 4:30

Space is limited, so reserve your attendance by sending an RSVP to alma.torres@azahcccs.gov with your name, contact info, and whether you will be attending in person or via I-Linc. I-Linc information will be provided upon confirmation.

Due to budget constraints, copies will not be provided at the briefing, but information can be obtained on the AHCCCS website at: <http://www.azahcccs.gov/shared/news.aspx>
