Incorrect link initially sent to the Committee has been corrected RFP – received 21 formal responses and feedback from the community. AHCCCS is planning ongoing community engagement around RFP development. 1115 Waiver – received a lot of feedback on this. Discussion regarding prior authorizations for 24-hour care and housing issues included indication from Paul that there is no duration limit for receiving residential treatment services. Services should be available based on medical necessity. Holly noted that it would be helpful to her to better understand factors that determine “good” or “appropriate” housing by the RBHA, especially when conducting site visits and being expected to comment on potential rights violations arising out of housing. Scott noted that Dr. Potts is good at engaging residents in discussions. 	NA Send out a paper by Ted Williams regarding housing to Committee. Paul Galdys referred Committee to SAMSHA Toolbox on Permanent Supportive Housing. Scott will ask Charles to make a presentation to the	NA Holly Gieszl Scott and Charles	NA April 12, 2017
