

Fort Defiance Indian Hospital Board, Inc.

SINCE 2010

Fort Defiance Indian Hospital Board, Inc.

Self-Determined healthcare organization under the Indian Self-Determination and Education Assistance Act (Public Law 93-638)

Serving over 16 chapters on the Navajo Nation within the Fort Defiance Agency

Estimated over 900 staff are employed

Fort Defiance Indian Hospital Board, Inc.

Tséhootsooí Medical Center

Fort Defiance, Arizona

Nahát'á Dził Health Center

Sanders, Arizona

Nihi Dine'é Bá Wellness Center

Navajo, New Mexico

Tséhootsooí Medical Center

Fort Defiance, Arizona

Constructed in 2002 under Indian Health Service

Houses a 24/7 Emergency Department

Licensed for 56 inpatient beds including an Intensive Care Unit, Medical-Surgical Unit, Pediatric Ward, OB/GYN Ward, and Adolescent Psychiatric Care Unit

Clinics include Primary Care, Internal Medicine, Laboratory, Podiatry, Dental, Optometry, Pharmacy, Women's Health, Diabetes Management, etc.

Nahát'á Dził Health Center

Sanders, Arizona

Opened in 2015

Remote location off Interstate 40

Clinics include Primary Care, Internal Medicine, Laboratory, Podiatry, Pediatrics, Dental, Physical Therapy, Respiratory Therapy, Optometry, Pharmacy, Women's Health, Radiology, and Diabetes Management.

Nihi Dine'é Bá Wellness Center

Navajo, New Mexico

Opened April 2, 2018

Located in the New Mexico side of the state border within 100 feet of the Arizona stateline.

State of the art facility that houses the Division of Healthy Living & Outreach: Wellness, Nutrition, Public Health Nursing, HPDP, Epidemiology

Mobile Health Program, Rehabilitation/Physical Therapy Services

Fort Defiance Indian Hospital Board, Inc.

Our mission is “to provide superior and compassionate healthcare to our community by raising the level of health, Hózhó, and quality of life.” We are committed to providing the utmost quality care, to be compassionate in our interactions with patients and staff, and to extend heartfelt K’e to our patients and staff.

