START
Tribal Court Order established
A tribal court order for involuntary commitment must only be filed with the Arizona Superior Court within one tribal court day after a member is admitted to a State licensed behavioral health treatment facility.
Superior Court notified of filing of tribal court order to appear and respond
Response to be filed within 5 days of receipt of filing the order
Superior Court attempts to resolve any issues raised with Tribal Court Judge
Is tribal court order found to be enforceable off tribal reservation?
YES
Tribal court order enforceable as if order originated in Superior Court
NO
If denied due to incomplete findings or unresolved issues, the Superior Court advises of specific reasons for denial